To be the best we seek the best

At GardaWorld, we understand that our product is our people. We focus on the holistic employee experience – from a highly selective talent acquisition model to a robust employee experience program. Understanding the importance of customer service, all of our employees complete the Customer First Service training, a proprietary program designed to deliver an exceptional customer experience at both the transactional level for our Security Officers and the relational level for our Managers.

- GardaWorld has an industry-leading Glassdoor rating. You will receive happier, more motivated personnel securing your business.
- We proudly maintain a 1:5 Manager/Supervisor to front-line Security Officer ratio to ensure employees remain engaged and heard.
- Our Recognition Program recognizes 1 in 4 employees for outstanding performance and loyalty, increasing employee satisfaction.
