

THE COOPERATOR EXPO LAS VEGAS

COVID-19

EXPO
RESCHEDULED

3/12/2020

The team here at The Cooperator shares your concerns about the coronavirus/COVID-19 outbreak. We are committed to looking out for the health and well being of our attendees, exhibitors, and event staff members. Out of an abundance of caution, the Expo -- slated to take place on April, 29th, 2020 at the Las Vegas Convention Center -- has been rescheduled.

The show will now take place on Tuesday, November 17th, 2020.

We want to keep everyone safe, healthy, and able to focus on getting the most out of their day at the show, and we feel that rescheduling is the best way to achieve that.

Rest assured that the show will go on -- and will deliver all the education, networking, business opportunities, and professional development that make The Cooperator Expo such a dynamic, must-attend event every year.

Please continue to follow our social channels, as well as the Expo website to get the latest updates for attendees and exhibitors. We look forward to seeing you at our next event.

Be safe.

Sincerely,

Yale Robbins
President
The Cooperator
