

THE COOPERATOR EXPO SOUTH FLORIDA

COVID-19

7/22/2020

The team here at The Cooperator shares your concerns about the coronavirus/COVID-19 outbreak. We are committed to looking out for the health and well being of our attendees, exhibitors, and event staff members.

At this point in time we have made the difficult decision to cancel the 2020 Expo scheduled to take place at The Miami Convention Center.

The Expo will be back in 2021 on April 20th.

Rest assured that the show will go on -- and will deliver all the education, networking, business opportunities, and professional development that make The Cooperator Expo such a dynamic, must-attend event every year.

Please continue to follow our social channels, as well as the Expo website to get the latest updates for attendees and exhibitors. We look forward to seeing you at our next event.

Be safe.

Sincerely,

Yale Robbins
President
The Cooperator
